or e-mail recruitment@ecovertfm.co.uk

An experienced Health & Safety Manager is needed to provide technical expertise in terms of Health & Safety to ensure compliance with legislation, best practice and industry standards.

Reporting to the Group Head of QSE, the role involves developing the H&S business plan together with policies, procedures and strategies aligned to legal and company compliance. You will lead workstreams to review, develop, audit, monitor and analyse QSE management systems across the business so that we minimise our risk.

As the acknowledged H&S expert, you will advise and support senior management at a strategic and operational level, identify key risks and recommend appropriate action, develop processes and procedures, investigate accidents, compile and analyse reports, carry out audits, develop and deliver training whilst ensuring compliance with both current and forthcoming legislation and against a background of continuous improvement.

You should also have knowledge of quality processes (ideally knowledge of ISO9001, ISO14001, OHSAS18001) and be familiar with Service Level Agreements and Management Indicators, ideally in a Facilities Management environment.

It is essential you hold a recognised Health and Safety qualification i.e. NEBOSH Diploma or equivalent. A flexible and committed team player, you will have strong communication skills with the ability to influence at all levels. You will also be able to demonstrate sound organisational skills together with exposure to project and change management

In return, we offer an attractive salary and benefits package according to the skills and the experience you can bring to the role.
